

Interactive comment on “A new phase in the production of quality-controlled sea level data” by Graham D. Quartly et al.

N. Picot (Referee)

nicolas.picot@cnes.fr

Received and published: 15 May 2017

This paper describes the sea level dataset V2 that was produced by the European Space Agency's Climate Change Initiative (CCI). The summary of the dataset from version 1.1 is evidenced along with some metrics describing the improvements obtained.

I recommend publication in Earth System Science Data as a regular article in the data section.

Some questions are raised in the pdf file attached.

Please also note the supplement to this comment:

<http://www.earth-syst-sci-data-discuss.net/essd-2017-23/essd-2017-23-RC2-supplement.pdf>

C1

Interactive comment on Earth Syst. Sci. Data Discuss., doi:10.5194/essd-2017-23, 2017.

C2