Review of The Rofental: a high Alpine research basin (1890 m – 3770 m a.s.l.) in the Ötztal Alps (Austria) with over 150 years of hydrometeorological and glaciological observations.

page 1 line 27: "INARCH" - Please give some context to, or define INARCH... or cite it maybe. GEWEX INARCH project (https://words.usask.ca/inarch); page 2 line 4: This whole paragraph is one sentence. I suggest splitting it up here to make it easier to read. split this sentence up. "... high Alpine environmens. These research institutions are the ..."

page 2 lines 13-14. remove "further on" page 2 line 15. define Vent as a town or village.

page 2 line 17-18: "... become a core of..." and "...as such prolonging... (IHP)..." these need rewritten.

page 4 line 4: remove "formed with"

page 7 line 15: should fore field be one word?

page 8 lines 8-9: update if possible with a doi.

page 10 line 17: remove the word "yet" and "as"

page 10 line 20: replace "of" with "from".

page 10 line 20: replace "which" with "that".

page 10 line 23: how do you denote this in the dataset when instruments are completely snow covered?

page 17 throughout: If this is Lidar, you can just say Lidar and you don't have to define it at this point.

page 19 table 8 caption: seems like this should go in the acknowledgements, not a table footnote.
