Comments to the Author:

The authors have provided adequate responses to all of the the reviewer comments. This manuscript is suitable to be published after a very minor revision, which is to label Figure 2 panels as A, B, and C, and to put a note in the caption that explains the differences in time resolution. Further review will not be required.

Comments from the Author to the Topical Editor:

Thank you for your final review.

We have made the requested edits: we have edited Figure 2 to label the panels as A, B, and C, and we have edited Figure 2’s caption to explain the difference in the time resolution.
