Dear Dr Dozier,

thank you for these first comments. I am surprised that you were not able to create a Theia account. It happened in the past that the authentication server was not responding for a few hours. Can you try again now? You can always contact the support (exploitation.theia-land@cnes.fr) or get in touch with me if you experience any difficulty.

Best regards,

Simon
