Dear Jeanne Percival,

thank you for your detailed comments on our manuscript. I started to work your suggestions into the text yesterday but I will wait for further comments on the manuscript before we start changing some of the compositional changes that you suggested. I am honestly surprised that some of the data was not accessible. Kirsten already checked and I just downloaded all of the data from the repository again. All of the data is available at <http://dataservices.gfz-potsdam.de/> and nothing should forward you to the website of the University of Potsdam or be locked by a password. Being able to access the data is the most important part here so thank you for bringing this to our attention!

Thanks again and kind regards, Friederike Körting
