

Interactive comment on “The Berkeley Earth Land/Ocean Temperature Record” by Robert A. Rohde and Zeke Hausfather

Paul Pukite

puk@umn.edu

Received and published: 25 June 2020

Most of the cyclic temperature variation is due to ENSO and related climate indices. Could probably reconstruct most of the varying part of the temperature record with one time series selected from the equatorial Pacific. Save some time and effort Interactive comment on Earth Syst. Sci. Data Discuss., <https://doi.org/10.5194/essd-2019-259>, 2020.

C1

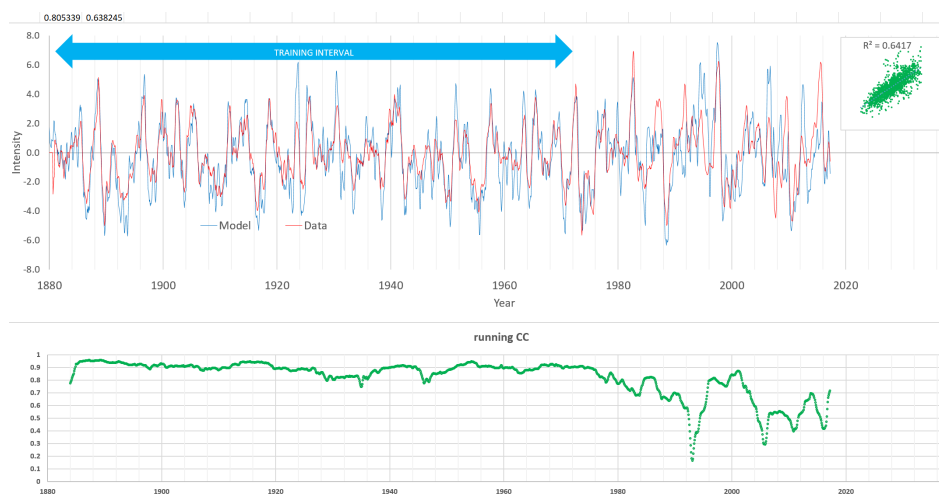

Fig. 1.

C2