

Interactive comment on “Data Generated During the 2018 LAPSE-RATE Campaign: An Introduction and Overview” by Gijs de Boer et al.

Anonymous Referee #1

Received and published: 10 July 2020

This paper overviews the LAPSE-RATE field campaign and the datasets obtained by the campaign in details. The dataset is complete and it is very high quality. The manuscript is written clearly. So this paper may be published without any revision except for the following typo.

L245: yyyyymmdd: year, month, day, month → No need for last 'month'

L244-245: It is better to reverse the order of hhmmss and yyyyymmdd.
