To Whom It May Concern,

I would like to mention that we made a few minor changes to the manuscript and the supplements compared to the version accepted by the editor as follows:

- We explicitly added the copyright statement "© Authors 2024. This figure is distributed under a CC BY-NC-SA 4.0 License." in the caption of the figures in the manuscript and supplements when this license applies. As we have explained in details in our cover letter to the editor upon initial submission of our manuscript on 15 November 2023, our dataset builds on data that are under a non-commercial license and it must be under a CC BY-NC-SA 4.0 License. Figures showing these data must therefore be under the same license.
- In the supplements, we corrected the captions of Tables S45 and S60 and the legend of Figures S62 and S64 that were erroneous.
- We corrected mistakes in the bibliography (typographical errors and comma missing in some lists of authors).

Thank you for your attention.

Yours sincerely,

Fanny Sarrazin
