

With the next file upload request, please consider adding supplement`s captions to photos in the supplement. Please see more: <https://www.earth-system-science-data.net/submission.html#assets> > Supplements.

Response: Thank you for your guidance on the submission process and the specific instructions regarding the supplements for our manuscript. We have carefully reviewed the section on "Supplements" at the provided link: ESSD - Submission, and we understand the importance of including captions for photos within the supplement.

We ensure that the supplement file is accompanied by clear and descriptive captions for each image. Please see the revised supplement.
