Dear Authors, am satisfied with the changes you've made to the manuscript—thank you for addressing my comments. While re-reading the text, I noticed a few minor typos. For example, on line 85, “provide a high and spatial resolution” should be “provide a high spatial resolution,” and on line 55, “As seen in Table 2 shows...” appears to be a grammatical error. Please take a moment to carefully proofread the manuscript to ensure the text is as clear and polished as possible. This is my final recommendation, and I look forward to seeing your paper published.

Dear referee,

Thank you for your comments and suggestions. We proofread the manuscript for any grammatical errors and typos. We corrected the mistakes you noticed and others we saw in the proofreading. We changed text formatting in several places and removed double spaces. A missing reference to Figure 1 was added, and its placement in the text was adjusted.

Dear Graciela,

We appreciate the chance to share our work with a broader audience. We are committed to enhancing our manuscript based on the valuable feedback and suggestions provided by the referees. Thank you and the support team for guidance throughout the publication process.

Best regards,
Adam Jaczewski, on behalf of the authors' team
